

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Antonio Peruch wins Orpheus Award for Homage to Tango CD

June 29, 2016

Edmonton, AB: Classical concert accordionist Sir N. Antonio Peruch has won the prestigious international 2016 Orpheus Award in the Classical Music category for his CD Homage to Tango: The Music of Daniel Binelli. Adjudicated by an international jury, the award recognizes accordion CDs with outstanding performances. It was awarded earlier this month in Italy.

In addition to Peruch, the stellar performers on this CD include New York-based pianist Polly Ferman and Cuba's prestigious Camerata Romeu string orchestra, conducted by their founder and dynamic Music Director Zenaida Romeu. The CD was recorded in Cuba and released in 2015 in New York City.

Peruch's Homage to Tango is the first CD recording exclusively of Daniel Binelli's compositions—also the first classical concert accordion recording of his music. Binelli is the world's finest bandoneonist, Astor Piazzolla's torchbearer, and an outstanding composer in his own right.

Released on Peruch's independent FisarmonicArt Recordings label, Homage to Tango joins his other releases of Loving: The Music of Astor Piazzolla (also nominated for the Orpheus Award this year in the Classical Music category), and Logos Futura: Canadian Concerti for the New Concert Accordion—nominated for a Canadian Juno Award in 2013.

Contact:

To contact Antonio Peruch, and for information about purchasing his CDs, please see: www.antonioperuch.com

###